

Thank You

Your opinions have been valued. Your suggestions have been heard. Your ideas have made a difference. The wellness components of my practice have been implemented at our open house, and celebration is now scheduled to take place. This is your formal announcement, and if you wish, it is your welcome and invitation to come celebrate with your community. Our town of Mechanicsburg is now a healthier and wiser place thanks to FULLMER CHIROPRACTIC.

All the greatest athletes- Pro Bowlers, Lance Armstrong, etc.- on the planet know that chiropractic does not just get them out of pain, but helps them play their best game possible. Now come play and celebrate! Thanks to the questions you have answered over the past six months, we can now celebrate the opening of our practice. During this two hour celebration, (announce festivities here. In addition, you may also have events for the children, visitation from the Mayor, Police Chief, Newspaper, etc.)

(This next section applies to proclaiming bullets of value about your house)

Come and enjoy the following:

- We provide state of the art healthcare for other facilities as well as you, the individuals of our community.
- We provide a welcoming, safe and appropriate environment, in addition to many outstanding services.
- We care for the entire body while we center, primarily, on a healthy spine and nervous system.
- See how chiropractic is totally safe!

If you are able to stop by for the celebration, we would be grateful for your visit and happy to see you. If you are not able to visit at this time, it will not mark the end of this invitation, but a beginning of the fact that our facility is open to serve you and all of our neighbors from here forward.

Most Sincere and Healthy Regards,
Dr. Jason Fullmer Chiropractor
